

Association of International Medical Graduates of British Columbia

Dear AIMGBC Members,

We are very pleased to announce our next session entitled “Master in Health with specialization in Global Health” on March 30th 2017 at 6pm.

Our presenter Constance Bygrave is an Assistant Professor and coordinator of the Master of Administrative Science at Fairleigh Dickinson University. She will be covering the requirements to apply for the Masters degree as an alternative careers for IMGs. She will share her experience with some of her students who are also IMGs and how they are studying this Masters as an alternative career.
